

Donald Payton is president of the African American Genealogy Interest Group, which is a branch of the Dallas Genealogical Society.

Mr. Payton has spent more than 35 years tracing family histories and doing historical workshops across America. He also organizes the Miller Family Reunion in Dallas, Texas every summer. This reunion attracts more than 1,000 family members.

He is a former Dallas County Historical Commissioner who has served on a special state committee to make June 19th an official Texas state holiday and he has presented numerous Juneteenth workshops and programs in various states. Mr. Payton has also been featured in national media news events and interviews.

Donald Payton
8440 Sweetwater Drive
Dallas, Texas 75228