DISTINGUISHED LECTURER:

Jamal Rasheed

Affectionately referred to by many as “Doctor,” Jamal Rasheed is an author, talk show host, columnist, entrepreneur, educator, and motivational speaker. He graduated from Missouri’s Lincoln University with a B.S. in Social Science and minor in African American History. He later earned his Masters Degree in Education and Sociology as well as an endorsement in Health and Safety.

For over 40 years, Jamal has written commentaries for several newspapers, including the international Islamic publication Muslim Journal, for which he received the honorary community title of doctor bestowed by Imam W. Deen Mohammed (ra) as a testament to Jamal’s piercing insight into the human condition.

The Imam said of him: “...He’s a learned, very strong productive minded person. He’s a scholar...I try to keep up with him in the paper. One of the things that I make a point to read is his writings.....I am making it right now, required readings, that you read the commentaries of Dr. Jamal R. Rasheed.”

“Dr.” Rasheed has presented at numerous workshops including the National Symposium on Race Relations and Equity Education and Civil Rights sponsored by the Brown Foundation, namesake for Brown vs. Board of Education. He has been a radio and television guest including at the World Famous Apollo Theater in Harlem New York, and for over 20 years, he hosted, “The Jamal Rasheed Show,” a live television production addressing critical issues affecting the African American and broader community.

Rasheed is a weekly columnist for Muslim Journal, co-host for the AM360 weekly talk show “Solutions to Critical Issues,” and author of six books including Positive Solutions to Improve Our Lives.
