

CWSC Speakers Bureau

Connecting the American Muslim intelligentsia with faith, media, business, government, education and cultural institutions at home and abroad...

Request
this
Speaker

REQUEST A SPEAKER

Travel Origin: FL

Best practices must inform all that we do; and sometimes you have to go back to move forward.”

DISTINGUISHED LECTURER:

Amin Nathari

Imam Amin Nathari is national representative for the Islam in America Movement and executive director of the Muslim Empowerment Institute. The entrepreneur, author and lecturer is a passionate voice of his generation on the contemporary socio-political challenges and issues of our time. Specializing primarily in analysis and documentation of events and issues impacting Muslims and the American Islamic experience, he is also a renowned and respected activist and servant-leader in the Muslim community for over twenty years.

Besides community, public service and organizational work, he the Imam has collaborated with some of Muslim America’s most prominent scholars, leaders and activists. Imam Nathari also teaches classes and facilitates discussions at social service agencies, libraries and other public and private venues throughout the U.S. A dynamic lecturer and highly sought after public speaker, he has delivered hundreds of lectures and presentations at over thirty mosques and centers, in addition to institutions of higher learning and correctional institutions.

Author of seven books including Making It Plain – On The Record: Selected Blogs, Essays and Writings of Amin Nathari. Additionally, Imam Nathari is working on his memoir, Going Back to Move Forward – Growing Up Black and Muslim in America. The Imam is also a media and communications strategist, advising and serving a select roster of educational, political and not-for-profit/community service clients. He is a former deputy director of communications for the City of Newark, New Jersey, and holds B.A. from Thomas Edison State College in Trenton, New Jersey. Imam Nathari is pursuing studies Public Policy and Religion. Read more. ▼

TOPICS:

Islam in American History and in the 21st Century, Social Responsibility, Islam in Black America, Bridging the Gap between Indigenous & "Immigrant" Muslims, Civic Engagement in 21st Century America, Developing the Next Generation of "Servant-Leaders."

PUBLICATIONS

The Friday Prayer and The Two Celebrations Made Simple

Making It Plain – On The Record: Selected Blogs, Essays and Writings of Amin Nathari

Going Back to Move Forward –Growing Up Black and Muslim in America

BROADCASTS

Teleconference

Islam in America Movement on AM360.org Saturdays 8p EST

Visit CWSC’s broadcast network!