CWSC Special Services & Goods Barter Arrangements

As a national broadcasting and human resources network, CWSC has an interest in working with for-profits and nonprofits in meeting its mission as a national working intelligentsia.

From time-to-time, we enter into joint voluntary agreements that the executive director or board approve for the mutual benefit of CWSC and its collaborating partners (usually national level institutions). We recognize, support and appreciate the work others do to serve our communities and the group intellect.

The CWSC Barter program is a unique opportunity afforded to organizations who have value added services to offer CWSC. By mutually transferring in-kind or bartered services between the organizations, both CWSC and the partner are able to preserve working capital while obtaining goods and services that might otherwise be unattainable or such expenditure would severely strain one or both organization's financial resources.

In essence, bartering allows organizations to use their sponsored programs, events, and sites natural inherent resources or strengths to save costs that might otherwise exhaust dollars needed to fund mission essential work. In determining the exchange of in-kind goods or services, we do not solely compare retail or standard valuations, but also the intrinsic benefits of allying and working cooperatively with diverse community service institutions.

Not all invitations to barter can be accepted, since there is a danger of over allocating free services, but you have been provisionally approved. Congratulations! Please complete the CWSC In-Kind Gifts & Barter Arrangement Profile as the next step.

And thank you for serving our community...together we can remake the world.

As-Salaam-Alaikum.
